One of their best songs. The lyrics are the typical "dumb and funny" thing of the band. This version contains close to no 16ths but there are many jumps, and some crossovers during the streams of the 12.

Patterns involve "dishwashing" with each foot alternatively, with two 16-mesures streams. The break has some jumps but there are no crossovers at all. I did edit the music to add more streamz. Tu dances.

The original chart that was submitted, it is way easier than the other versions. It should feel more "oldschool" also. The runs are really small, don't feature difficult patterns, and are separated by holds, quite fun.

Okami : This has many broken streams, so you have plenty of little breaks to catch your breath. Beware of the last 8 measures, they contain mines in the stream, so its way harder to read. (R: #nomines)

This chart is similar to the Hard one, with unbroken streams and slightly harder patterns. The amount of run is balanced by breaks, so it should be a mid 14. After the 1st run there is only 10.5 mesures of break.

Dark and minimalist like a good part of neurofunk, the stream parts are located on the "heaviest" parts of that song. There is a big break in the middle, making it more like 60//66. Kinda standard patterns I guess ?

VIOLINSS-sorry. Runs are short and easy, there are some turns but generally easy patterns. There is a bit of jump stream in this but nothing too fast. Song is chill and kinda grows on you I feel. Also kinda short.

Okami : A really cool BMS song. There's a stop after the first slowdown that divides Omelette Team (Rems : just C-MOD it). Aside from gimmicks, this is a relatively plain chart with 16th bursts in the last half.

Pezede : The mastermind from the north and also sometimes from the southwest :^ behind the French Coast tournament(s), really good at rating charts (LOL @ Amazing 14) and at making MAX300 memes. His meme-ing proficiency is so high he is currently an admin on MAX300 HELL. The French Coast is proud of this man.					Presentation : He likes crossovers all over the place, passing stamina songs with scores worth a 30-comments post on DDR+ITG Players, and 8 hours sessions. From Paris, I present to you Okami. Up-and-coming player since his ITG beginnings 1 year ago, he now takes part in making charts and establishing advanced stats.

Presentation : One of the few remaining players of the South, he is less known than most players that have been around lately but he did make some top-notch stamina files for this pack. Also #teamChaussettes, #teamSud and #teamChocolatine. Has stepped most of the heaviest Drum & Bass tracks.					Long time ITG player, Benoukat had his stride during the golden days of the French Community (#teamDMZ nvrftg), and we put him out of retirement to step a little more arrows. Which he did in a brilliant manner. Hardcore fan of the Eurovision, he did provide quality retro-feeling charts revolving around more popular songs !
Comments/Thanks : Thanks to the Omelette team for leading the project until the end, I'm definitely hyped for the next iteration of OdF and the yet to be defined stamina-oriented pack. (potential teasing there !)			"#RushsHandMade" My streams faces left side for a good 420 mesures...		Comment / Thanks : I'm glad i'm not retarded enough to see the french community still alive. Because the recipe of a good gaming community is often 65% cancer 30% salt 5% fun, this one contains some pure gold players you need to play with. This pack is the reflection of how much we got fun with this game, and I hope everyone will enjoy the fucking Marseillaise. S'il vous plait comprenez.			The good guy that did pretty much everything graphical. Very sobre design on his banners. Shortened name is BNKT.

He just recently started to play again, and for the occasion he did deliver the charts he has done during his 2 year break.

Presentation : The french beast from Paris. Eats 16's for breakfast, plays them no bar every other set. Our primary stamina tester, had a significant impact on the syncing of the pack. On his way to represent the French Coast Stamina at the European level, and to keep contradicting me on every chart rating.
Comments/Thanks : Thanks to the Omelette team for its contributions, you guys have been working really hard and it has paid off. Love you all <3		"SOS" "Allez c'est bientot fini" "Tu connais pas Miyavi ?"

Some last (cheesy) words

Rems :

Well, thanks for reading this. We did put a lot of our time writing all of this. First, credit goes to Dark Psytrance Team and The Apocalypse Sampler team that did premiere this format of organizing everything. I found myself reading their stats a lot and having a lot of fun reading the comments ! For these reasons we decided to make our own, even it is less relevant for non streamy charts. Respect to them.

And then, many thanks to the Omelette du Fromage team, and the people that did push us to go the distance by releasing the complete pack. It started so little and look at where we are now :D ! Some people like me and Okami did not even make charts before, and I was delighted to see the quality of some of the submitted files, thanks guys, you're awesome.

I also want to shoutout the small communities we don't happen to see much but are still there with a lot of passion for the game. You can make a little splash if you try hard, there is always room for more good content. Also thanks to the awesome testers we got to work on it, Ian, Chino, Cheyenne & Ben ;) !

We all hope that you enjoyed playing the pack and reading through this ;) ! As it may be complicated to keep track of everything, you can drop me a mail at frenchcoaststamina@gmail.com if you want to share some videos, shoutouts or anything else :) ! It sure will be transmitted to the frenchies !

Okami :

First, I want to thank all the Omelette team for joining the hype train, it was a really unique experience, and really good memories. Thanks to Rems for organizing everything and make this pack a success. Thanks to all our testers, the quality of many charts really improved with their feedback.

Shoutout to all steppers worldwide, there's so, so many of you that I want to thank. We have fun playing ITG because you're doing awesome stuff, keep going, we love you.
